

The Perfect World

What if we could live in a world without flaws? The only way we'll ever get there is to allow ourselves to think and talk freely about the possibilities, and exchange ideas about how to make those dreams happen.

This game is intended to help you connect with other open-minded thinkers, and talk through ways to facilitate change: now or in the future, in your community or around the world.

We've provided a few overarching topics to get the conversation going, along with a few examples for each to help you think big.

Print and cut out the cards and with the final page. Then adjust the conversation any way you choose, and feel free to bring other topics into your discussion.

GOOD

Transportation

Examples:
Teleportation
Hover cars
Unicycles

Government

Examples:
Anarchy
Voting by Phone
Dodgeball Rules

Food

Examples:
Backyard Gardens
Soylent
Foraging

Education

Examples:
Free College
Two-Hour School Days
No Grades

Employment

Examples:

Gender- and Race-Blind Job Applications
Mandatory Naptime
Three-Day Weekends

Currency

Examples:

Barter System
Bitcoin
Timebanks

Healthcare

Examples:

Universal Healthcare
Paid Paternity Leave
Prescription Yoga

---

(Fill in the blank)

Sketch your perfect world...

In the box below, visualize your ideas as a group by drawing the world as if it were perfect.
Pass the drawing from person to person. If it helps, use the cards as prompts.

